Grandma Used Sage Tea to Darken Hair

She mixed Sulphur with it to Restore Color, Gloss, Youthfulness.

Grandmother kept her hair beautifully darkened, glossy and attractive with a brew of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Whenever her hair took on that dull, faded or streaked appearance, this simple mixture was applied with wonderful effect. By asking at any drug store for "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound," you will get a large bottle of this old-time recipe, improved by the addition of other ingredients all ready to use, at very little cost. This simple mixture can be depended upon to restore natural color and beauty to the hair.

A well-known downtown druggist says everybody uses Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied—it's so easy to use, too. You simply dampen a comb or soft brush and draw it through your hair, taking one strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, it is restored to its natural color and looks glossy, soft and beautiful. This preparation is a delightful toilet requisite. It is not intended for the cure, mitigation or prevention of disease.—(Adv.)

Alkali in Soap Bad for the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully. If you want to keep your hair looking its best, most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle, and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is just ordinary mulled coconut oil (which is pure and greaseless), and is better than the most expensive soap or anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonfuls will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dust, dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft, and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get mulled coconut oil at any pharmacy. It's very cheap, and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months.—(Adv.)

OUR PARENTS BEFORE US

Says Cobden Lady. Used Black-Draught. Interesting Tale of Her Faith in This Old Reliable Family Remedy.

Cobden, Ill.—Mrs. Alice Metz, of this place, thinks that when you have found a good thing, it is your duty to let others know about it. She writes: "We have used Black-Draught in our family for years, as our parents before us used it, as a general medicine for liver and stomach troubles.

"It is also fine for the children. They get away sometimes, just like children will, and eat just everything. Many times I have prevented serious troubles by taking my children in hand and dosing them thoroughly with Black-Draught.

"My husband takes Black-Draught for constipation. It worked wonders in his case. In fact, we are all true believers in Black-Draught and are never out of it. We would not resort to any other remedy, under any circumstances.

"Rheumatism's Black-Draught is a medicine that every person should keep in the house, and use at the least sign of indigestion, constipation, liver and stomach troubles.

"It is purely vegetable, and acts actively on the bowels, gently stimulating the liver, and helping to increase the normal discharge of bile into the intestines. It assists in the digestion of food and relieves constipation in a prompt and natural way. Try Black-Draught.

At all druggists.—(Adv.)

BUSY BUSINESS MEN

Science Helps Them Out After Recklessly Abusing the Stomach.

The most reckless man in regard to health is the busy business man. At least he rushes out for a bite to eat. He bolts his food without proper mastication, and heaps on his stomach an extra burden greater than it is able to carry without breaking down.

His overworked stomach is crying for help; it appeals to him for relief in various ways: Expulsion of sour gas, water-brash, sour taste in mouth, heaviness after eating, shortness of breath, bad breath.

One Mi-o-na tablet taken with or after each meal will help any sufferer from dyspepsia with a rigid guarantee to overcome dyspepsia and all stomach troubles, or money back. They make eating a pleasure.

Mi-o-na cleanses and purifies the stomach and bowels and puts vigor and strength into the overworked tissues. It is the surest stomach tonic in the world. Sold by leading druggists everywhere.

FULL PARDON FOR COOPER COMING

Executive Clemency Granted on Recommendation of Court Officials.

E. K. Cooper, who has been serving a six months' sentence in the Hamilton county jail on the charge of man slaughter, has been pardoned by Gov. Tom C. Rye and will be released on Wednesday. Cooper was notified Tuesday that his pardon was on the way and that he was to be released from Nashville. The pardon was issued by the board of pardons, which is composed of both the front office and of the outside when something had to be sent for by some of the sheriff's officers. He has proved a valuable man to the jail and has made many friends by his unflinching courtesy. He has proved a friend to the unfortunate locked up and has never failed to minister to their wants where it was possible. Cooper was represented by J. H. Daly.

It will be remembered that Cooper was convicted in the criminal court of manslaughter, he having run down the little Johnny Samuels while riding his motorcycle on the Rossville boulevard. The little fellow was on his way to school and was riding on the rear of a wagon. When just in front of the school the boy jumped from the wagon and ran immediately in front of the motorcycle ridden by Cooper.

Cooper claims the little fellow ran in front of the motorcycle and then dodged back into the machine. He says that had the boy not become frightened and changed his mind the accident would never have occurred. Cooper was indicted and tried, being sentenced to eleven months and twenty-nine days in the workhouse. At the hearing for a new trial this sentence was cut down to six months by Judge McKeynolds and Cooper allowed the privilege of staying at the jail. He has been at the jail four months.

Cooper comes from a good family and is well educated. He states that he will secure a position in Chattanooga and make this his home until he is called into the army, which he says he expects will be done in a short while.

Cooper belongs in class 1 of city board No. 1 and successfully passed the physical examination a few days ago.

POTATOES DECEIVE UNWARY CUSTOMERS

Irish Spuds With Disagreeable "Sweet" Taste Sold by Walden's Ridge Peddler.

"What's the matter with potatoes?" more than one housewife is asking. Within the last few days some potatoes, apparently of the best grade, firm and of good size and soon sold out at $1.50 per bushel, have made their appearance on the local market. But upon being cooked and served at the table, the snowy appearance still leading one to think he had made a good bargain, it remained to be discovered that they were a dead loss. The potatoes have a sweet taste that is to say the least, and difficult as it is to get seed potatoes, one could not put his new purchase to that use. A whole crop of such "spuds" would be a tragedy.

Not one section alone has been defrauded by these worthless potatoes. At least in two parts of the city housekeepers have bought them in quantities within the past few days. In Ridgedale, a man, saying he was from Walden's ridge, soon sold a wagonload of them.

In St. Elmo one grocer bought several bushels, later selling them in small amounts to his customers. Throughout Saturday and Monday, he says, his telephone was busy with calls, asking indignantly about the potatoes.

BOLSHIEVIK REPUBLIC TO REPLACE COSSACKS FORMED

Petrograd, Sunday, Feb. 17.—A bolshevik Den republic has been organized at Tcherkassk with M. Sergiev as prime minister. This government is designed to replace the Cossack government fostered by Gen. Kaledin and will move to Novo Tcherkassk, when the bolsheviks have taken it, it is stated. The bolshevik government has issued an order to all householders that they must immediately report the names of all subjects of the central powers living on their property, especially able-bodied prisoners of war, who will be concentrated at definite centers.

GOSSETT VIEWS BODY OF WIFE

Declares She Looked Better Than Ever—Man Whom He Claims Sold Pistol Arrested.

"She looked better than I ever saw her, and her cheeks were fuller and gave her the appearance of being healthier," said William Franklin Gossett Tuesday night, when speaking about his wife, whom Sheriff Nick P. Bush Tuesday afternoon had taken him to see while she lay dead at Wann's undertaking establishment from a bullet fired from a pistol in the hands of her husband. It was through the kindness of the sheriff that Gossett was allowed to view for the last time the woman he claims he loved more than life, but whose life he had taken through several different causes assigned by him. Gossett further stated, when asked by a reporter how he felt, that he felt blue for the first time since he had committed the murder and near-murder. J. A. Walters, stepfather of the wife of Gossett, still lies dangerously wounded at Erlanger hospital as the result of two wounds caused by bullets fired from the murderous pistol in the hands of Gossett.

Gossett has told several conflicting stories about the killing, first stating that he fired because his wife's stepfather was attempting to shoot him. Later he said he fired because he was jealous of his wife, because soldiers continued to go to see her after they were married. The next story he told was that Walters fired the first shot and after he was shot, he fired the second shot. He told the reporter that he could not say that Walters shot, but that after he (Gossett) fired the first shot, some one fired another. Gossett has attempted to implicate Sam H. Seymour in the domestic troubles, but an investigation shows that Mr. Seymour was the attorney of the wife's family and had advised Mrs. Gossett not to go back to her husband because he was not accurate, and the same reason for the accusation against Mr. Seymour. Mr. Seymour's friends take no stock in Gossett's story.

It will be remembered that Gossett stated that before he did the killing and near-killing at the corner of East End avenue and East Ninth street he armed himself with a half-pistol of whiskey and then went to a pawnshop on East Ninth street, where he bought a pistol for $2.50, with the agreement that after it was used it be returned and $1 would be refunded. Late Tuesday afternoon Gossett was taken to East Ninth street, together with officer, and told to lead them to the pawnshop where the man who sold him the pistol. Gossett walked to the Eagle pawnshop and identified "Mike" Edelstein as the man who sold him the pistol. Edelstein was taken to the county jail by Constable Frank Hendrix, where he made bond for his appearance. He denies Gossett bought the pistol in his place. The name of the man who sold the whiskey to Gossett was given to the officers in the case, and they expect to make an arrest.

ABOUT 800 READY FOR MOBILIZATION

Doctors Complete Work of Physical Examination and Are Given Honorable Discharges.

City selective draft board No. 1 concluded the work of physical examination of class 1 men Tuesday afternoon, with the exception of a few belated registrants and several hundred who failed to appear and are summoned. The board will spend the next few days in rounding up the delinquents, and hopes to have practically all of them enrolled in a short time, ready for entrainment for the mobilization camps as soon as the call comes from Washington.

In the delinquent list is Rube Marshall, of the Chattanooga baseball club. His whereabouts are unknown. The summons was sent to the address in his questionnaire, but he failed to appear, and hence his name was turned over to Ed Finlay, representative of the department of justice, who will undertake to locate the baseball player.

Marshall did not claim exemption in filling out his questionnaire, and his absence is not regarded as an attempt to evade service, but merely a matter of carelessness, and his friends say he will come as soon as he can be located and will be found ready to join the draft army when the call comes.

The medical board supplementing Dr. Fred B. Stapp, member of the board, is the physical examination board composed of Dr. J. J. Gee and Dr. J. B. Delaney. The doctors were given an honorable discharge and have returned to their private practice, as have also the clerks assisting—Sam W. Maples, Leo Osborne and S. E. Stern.

Dr. Stapp, the medical member of the board, will continue on duty from day to day to examine the delinquents that may be brought in. This board had 1,988 class 1 men, and it is estimated that of this number 800 were found physically qualified for general military service.

FOUND SMALLPOX INSTEAD OF LIQUOR

Good Story Being Told on Constable Hendrix—Stood Not Upon Order of Going.

A good story is going the rounds on Constable Frank Hendrix regarding a recent raid he made on a negro home. The constable had been called on by the pastor of a church in his vicinity, who claimed that a certain negro home was very disorderly and that whisky was being sold there nightly. The constable, of course, wanting to do his duty, waited until night, when he thought he could get the most evidence, and going to the place, searched it. He found several empty rooms and no signs of life or liquor. Finally he went around to the rear and discovered a room with the shades all down. Knocking at the door, a negro man answered and said: "Boss, there ain't nothing but a sick man in here."

The officer, thinking that the negro was deceiving him, pushed open the door and walked in, and, sure enough, there was a negro in bed. The cover was then pulled off and the negro told the officer that he had chicken pox. Suddenly Constable Hendrix turned to his partner, Deputy Sheriff Alred, and said: "Let's go. There isn't any whisky in here."

Alred replied that the room ought to be searched, as he believed the negro was "possessing" and had whisky under the bed.

Constable Hendrix then replied: "If he has any whisky in here at all it is going to stay, because I am going! That nigger has a case of smallpox."

The two officers then hurried to the health office and reported the case, and a physician visited the home and found the negro with one of the worst cases of smallpox he had ever seen.

Constable Hendrix reported to the sheriff's office: "While looking for a case of liquor we found a case of smallpox."

WANT WILSON TO SPEAK OUT ON NEGRO LYNCHINGS

New York, Feb. 20.—John R. Shillady, secretary of the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People, yesterday made a second appeal to President Wilson to speak out in condemnation of the burning and torturing near Estill Springs, Tenn., of a negro accused of murder.

Shillady's appeal was directed to Secretary Tamm, Shillady called to attention the fact that the attorney-general, to whom the president referred the association's first appeal, had decided the federal government had no jurisdiction in the case. Shillady, of Tennessee, had not replied to the association's telegram asking what steps were being taken to arrest the members of the mob.

"In view of this statement of the attorney-general and the silence of the governor of Tennessee, we beg you to lay this matter again before the president, lest the laws be flouted and justice denied," wrote Shillady.

Boston, Mass., Feb. 20.—The hanging of a negro by a mob Saturday night, near Fayetteville, Ga., for attempted robbery and kidnapping, led the Boston branch of the National Equal Rights league to send a telegram to President Wilson today asking him to issue a message on lynching.

"Are not two or three lynchings a week worthy of a message to congress from the president?" says the telegram. "Every lynching incites to repetition. Will you not speak in our country's name to let the world know your attitude on these recent horrors which disgrace humanity and civilization?"

THIS WOMAN ESCAPED AN OPERATION

By Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Many Others Have Done the Same.

Troy, N. Y.—"I suffered for more than seven months from a displacement and three doctors told me I would have to have an operation. I had dragging down pains, backache and headaches and could not do my housework. My sister who had been helped by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound asked me to try it. I have taken several bottles and am now entirely well—so I do all my work—and not a trace of my old trouble. I have told many of my friends what wonderful results they will get from its use."—Mrs. S. STOP INDIGESTION WITH VIN HEPATICA

There's not a bit of use in your having to be aggravated with a sour stomach, or suffering from a heaviness in your chest or stomach after every meal you eat.

That's indigestion. And, if let run on, more serious complications are sure to arise, and the first thing you know you are in a mighty bad fix. It upsets your whole system, throws you all out of gear.

Better get a bottle of Vin Hepatica, the Great Herbal Remedy and Tonic, right now. It goes right to the seat of the trouble at once. It is Nature's own prescription for the relief of indigestion and other disorders of the stomach, kidney, liver and bowels.

Come in and get a bottle, on our recommendation.

Get Back on the Road to Health By Keeping Your Blood Always Pure

Don't Let a Sluggish Circulation Drag You Down Hill.

Whether you earn your daily bread by the sweat of your brow, by the daily use of your muscle, or by tasks requiring less physical exertion, you need every ounce of strength that you can command.

It is of utmost importance, therefore, that you keep yourself in tip-top physical trim, and that you take every precaution to safeguard your health from the many pitfalls which disease has spread so promiscuously. Keeping thoroughly well and strong is simply a matter of resisting disease.

Why is it that your neighbor is always healthy and robust and strong, while you find yourself succumbing to even the most commonplace little ailments that tend to drag down your vitality? It is true that you are both liable to the same attacks, but why does he escape while you do not?

The answer can be found in the condition of the blood supply. If you keep your blood thoroughly purified and free from all substances that tend to impair its full strength and vigor, you, too, will be able to promptly throw off all efforts of disease to attack your system, and enjoy at all times the same robust vitality that your neighbor does.

When you begin to feel a loss of appetite, and a feeling of lassitude and weakness begins to pervade the system, this is nature's warning that your blood is in need of a thorough cleansing to sweep out of your system all impurities that are accumulating to clog up the circulation and make it sluggish.

S. S. S., the great vegetable blood remedy, is without question the greatest blood purifier and system-builder that you can take, and a few bottles of this fine old medicine will prove just what you need to give new vigor and strength to your system and put you back on the road to a vigorous vitality. S. S. S. has been sold by drug stores for nearly fifty years, and it is recognized everywhere as being in a class to itself for thoroughly cleansing the system of all impurities. Go to your drug store and get a bottle today, and you will soon find yourself enjoying the new strength that comes with an abundant supply of pure, rich blood. Send for free booklet that tells you all about the important functions of the blood, together with any free medical advice that you may need.
